CNBC's Mad Money "Lightning Round" with host Jim Cramer

Jim Cramer

Hey, how about Dan in Ohio? Dan!

Dan

Professor Cramer; a big Buckeye, 'Booyah' and a big Bengal, 'Who Dey!'

Jim Cramer

I'm liking that. I'm liking that whole thing. What's on your mind?

Dan

Yes. With its NFL and college football sports packages, how do you see DirecTV, DTV, doing in the next two months?

Jim Cramer

I like DirecTV, but I'm telling you, what I'm now behind, it's not DirecTV, which just spiked. I'm getting behind RRSat Global Communications. That's the uplink/downlink company. That's what I want you in. Any Israeli company that is willing to work with Al Jazeera may actually be willing to sacrifice a lot for a profit. I don't go there politically; I go there monetarily, and that's my satellite play.
